HISTORIC FORT WAYNE OPEN FOR ANNUAL FLEA MARKET FUNDRAISER AND TOURS OCTOBER 14-15

10/3/2006

Antique and bargain hunters will find collectibles, contemporary treasures and a variety of arts and crafts at the 23rd annual Detroit Historical Society Guild Flea Market, taking place Saturday, October 14th and Sunday, October 15th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Historic Fort Wayne, located at 6325 W. Jefferson (at the foot of Livernois).

Returning by popular demand, tours of the Historic Fort Wayne complex will be offered each day. The guided tours will include the Star Fort built in the 1840s, the Commanding Officer's House, the Spanish-American War Guard House and the National Museum of the Tuskegee Airmen. In addition, re-enactors will create the World War I and World War II eras at the Fort.

Secured parking is only two dollars per vehicle, admission is free for the flea market, and the tours are priced at $2 per person. Refreshments and baked goods will also be for sale. All of the proceeds will benefit the Detroit Historical Museums. Vendors can purchase tables for only $30.

For more information on the flea market or to purchase a table, call Natalie at (586) 771-1353, Mitzi at (586) 498-9298, or Mary Ann at (586) 415-5581.

Established in 1921, the Detroit Historical Society's mission is to educate and inspire our community and visitors by preserving and portraying our region's shared history through dynamic exhibits and experiences. The Society is responsible for the overall management and operations of the Detroit Historical Museum, Dossin Great Lakes Museum, and the Collections Resource Center on the grounds of Historic Fort Wayne
