

Association for Great Lakes Maritime History 2014 Annual Conference

September, 2014 – Dossin Great Lakes Museum – Detroit, Mich.

Friday, September 12

Detroit River Tour aboard the Diamond Queen

3:00-5:00 pm

$20 per person – departs from Stroh River Place Dock – Ride with some of the Great Lakes' premier historians and researchers. Cash bar.

Saturday, September 13

AGLMH Conference - $45 per person

- 8:30 a.m.      Check-In – Dossin Great Lakes Museum, Belle Isle
- 9:00 a.m.      “Only the River Remains: The Eastland Disaster, 1915-2014”
Caitlyn Perry Dial, Western Michigan University
- 10:00 a.m.     “Frontier Arms Race: The Cannons of the Detroit River and Lake Erie”
Daniel F. Harrison, Henry Ford College
- 11:00 a.m.     “Where Land and Water Meet: The Bridges of the Chicago River”
Patrick McBriarty, author and 2013 Barkhausen Award Winner
- 12:00 p.m.     Lunch Break– Buffet available with advance registration - $20 per person
- 1:00 p.m.      “Here We’ll Stand: Interpreting the History of the War of 1812 through Music”
Lee Murdock, musician and historian
- 2:00 p.m.      “The Civil War Comes to Detroit: The Philo Parsons Affair”
Paul Taylor, author and historian
- 3:00 p.m.      “Great Lakes Maritime History Research in a Wikipedia World”
Walter Lewis, author and 2011 Barkhausen Award Winner

To Reserve Your Seat –

313-833-1801

Tickets will be available at the dock/door for boat ride or Conference, but guests can not be assured a lunch on Saturday.

