KATE McEWEN IS THE DETROIT HISTORICAL SOCIETY'S NEW DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

DETROIT – Kate MacEwen has joined the Detroit Historical Society as Director of Development. Reporting to Chief Operating Officer Michelle Wooddell, MacEwen is responsible for all activities related to the non-campaign contributed revenue raised by the Detroit Historical Society, including corporate, foundation, government and individual donors.

Prior to coming to the Society, MacEwen was Director of Business Development and Marketing for the Community Alliance in Ypsilanti for three years. In addition, she has held development positions at Food Gatherers, Home of New Vision and the Center for Empowerment and Economic Development (CEED) in Ann Arbor.

MacEwen holds a bachelor of musical arts degree from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor and a masters in arts administration from Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti. She resides in Superior Township with her husband and four dogs.

Established in 1921, the Detroit Historical Society's mission is to educate and inspire our community and visitors by preserving and portraying our region's shared history through dynamic exhibits and experiences.
