Greetings,

The Detroit Historical Society's Course of History Golf Classic presented by Burns & Wilcox returns to the prestigious Country Club of Detroit, Monday, September 23, 2024. The Golf Classic will raise much needed funds to support the general operations and programming for the Detroit Historical Society. Burns & Wilcox is very excited to be the lead sponsor of this great event once again this year, as we continue to support the Detroit Historical Society's efforts to preserve Detroit's history.

The Detroit Historical Society manages both the Detroit Historical Museum and the Dossin Great Lakes Museum, cares for nearly 300,000 artifacts, and presents engaging programs, workshops, exhibitions and lectures year-round. Your financial support ensures that we can continue collecting and preserving artifacts and telling these stories for generations to come.

We will enjoy a relaxing and fun round on one of Michigan's most historic and exclusive courses. The day will include a breakfast and Bloody Mary station pre-round and will conclude with a cocktail reception and food stations on the CCD patio and in the Great Hall. Lunch and beverages will be available on the course throughout the round. Clubhouse history tours will also be available for all guests, provided by the Detroit Historical Society's Director of Collections & Curatorial.

Our sponsors and their guests will receive an invitation to a private sponsor cocktail reception on Sunday, September 22nd at CCD. On behalf of the Detroit Historical Society and our golf committee, we hope you will join us on the course Monday, September 23rd, 2024!

Please speak with a committee member or contact Jack Donnelly, Corporate Gifts Officer at jackd@detroithistorical.org with any questions or inquiries, or please visit detroithistorical.org/golf to register or sponsor.

Sincerely,

Danny Kaufman
