DOCUMENTARY FOCUSING ON ORGANIZED CRIME IN DETROIT TO BE SHOWN AT THE DETROIT HISTORICAL MUSEUM ON AUGUST 15-16

DETROIT- The Detroit Historical Society will screen “Detroit Mob Confidential” at the Detroit Historical Museum on Saturday, August 15 and Sunday, August 16 at 3 p.m. as part of their monthly Film Series. This event is free.

This film explores the history of Detroit’s La Cosa Nostra Family, which, in many ways, is the most successful crime family in the United States. In addition to law enforcement and media sources, former associates reflect on the past and their work with Detroit Mafia members in sports gambling and other criminal activities. Several hundred unique and never-seen-before surveillance photographs from Federal law enforcement are used as well as family photos of Don Joe Zerilli on his Grosse Pointe estate. “Detroit Mob Confidential” is the first and only documentary made about America’s most secretive and most successful Mafia family. Beginning in 1912 and finishing in 2009, “Detroit Mob Confidential” is a must-see film for any student of American history, crime buffs, and Detroiters of all ages and backgrounds. The running time is 79 minutes.

The Society’s Film Series features free monthly screenings of fascinating Detroit films on the second weekend of each month in the Louise C. Booth Auditorium at the Detroit Historical Museum. Upcoming films include the following.

- “Detroit: Our Greatest Generation” will be shown on Saturday, September 12 and Sunday, September 13. Directed by Emmy-winning filmmaker Keith Famie, “Detroit: Our Greatest Generation” tells the real-life stories of the many metro Detroit residents who are the true heroes of World War II. The film contains archival footage and live interviews with Detroiters sharing their generation’s stories.
