

Where
the past is present

DETROIT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Sunday, April 10, 2016

10am-5pm

Welcome to our 3rd annual Storytellers Festival!

Participating Organizations:

Arab American National Museum

Black Historic Sites Committee

Detroit Story League

Library of Michigan

Maria Elena & Company

The Secret Society of Twisted Storytellers

Turkish American Cultural Association of Michigan

Willow Winds

Food will be available for purchase all day
from Fourteen East.

Get creative with free make-and-take crafts that will help you tell your own story.

All activities take place in the museum's lower level with the exception of Jim Miller's Canoe Building demonstration on level one.

11am-4pm: See a birch bark canoe being built and learn about traditional wilderness skills with Jim Miller from Willow Winds.

Performance Schedule

Auditorium:

11am-11:30am	Hadil Ghoneim "Baba and the Pontiac"
12pm-12:30pm	David L. Head "The Story of Granville T. Woods"
1pm-1:30pm	Mary Kamidoi "World War II Internment Camps"
2pm-2:30pm	Mozaik Folk Dance Group – Turkish American Presentation & Dance
3pm-3:45pm	Genot Picor & Mindy Whalen – French-Canadian Stories, Music, & Dancing
4:15pm-4:45pm	Mariachi Juvenil Detroit

Grand Trunk Passenger Station:

Storytelling Workshops by The Secret Society of Twisted Storytellers 11:30am-12:30pm & 1pm-2pm